Re: CC Docket No. 95-116; WC Docket No. 09-109

Dear Ms. Dortch:

I write on behalf of Neustar, Inc., pursuant to paragraph 22 of the Revised Protective Order in this proceeding, to inform the Commission, Ericsson's wholly owned subsidiary Telcordia Technologies, Inc., d/b/a iconectiv, and the NAPM, LLC, of the potential inadvertent disclosure of Confidential Information to individuals not authorized to view such information.

On November 5, 2014, a draft document was circulated that contained the following sentence: [BEGIN CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION]

[END CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION] Support for that sentence is found in a discussion that occurs on pp. 141-142 of the LNPA Procurement Presentation of Telcordia Technologies, Inc., which is designated Confidential. Although it is not clear that the quoted sentence contains any Confidential Information, outside counsel had intended to redact the quoted sentence but did not do so.

The draft was sent to 6 individuals at Neustar, Inc., who do not have access to Confidential Information under the protective order. Subsequent to circulation of the document, on the night of December 4, the redaction error was first noticed by outside counsel; early in the morning of December 5, all of those individuals were asked to delete the document. Each of the individuals did so, and none has any recollection of having viewed any confidential material.

REDACTED - FOR PUBLIC INPECTION
